SimplyFly- Air booking system

Sprint-1

Passenger

Passenger will register and login into the system.

Passenger fills registration form with basic details (name, email, phone, password).

Passenger can login using email and password.

Passenger can search flights and view flight details.

Passenger enters origin, destination and journey date.

System shows available flights having sufficient seats.

Passenger can view flight schedule, price and seat availability.

Passenger can select a flight to proceed further.

Passenger can book tickets.

Passenger selects flight and number of seats.

System creates booking record.

Passenger receives booking confirmation and ticket

Flight Owner

Flight owner can register and login.

Flight owner fills registration form.

Flight owner can manage flights.

Owner can add new flights.

Owner sets source and destination airports.

Owner adds departure and arrival time.

Owner sets ticket price and seat availability.

System stores flight details.

Flight owner can manage bookings.

Owner can view bookings for their flights.

Owner can check passenger details.

Owner can monitor number of seats booked.